Resolutions for a New Academic Year

- https://www.chronicle.com/article/Resolutions-for-a-New-Academic/241061?utm_source=pm&utm_medium=en&cid=pm By Philip Nel, Kansas State University
- "Democracy cannot succeed unless those who express their choice are prepared to choose wisely. The real safeguard of democracy, therefore, is education."
 - President Franklin Delano Roosevelt

Resolutions

- Remember that we are doing important work.
- Teach students to use language well.
- Be wary of the tendency to slip into false equivalencies.
- Incorporate current issues into the classroom, when we can.
- Tailor advice (such as mine) to our own individual abilities, personality, and ways of being in the world.
- Take care of yourself.
- Finally, find ways to kindle hope.

HAVE A GREAT SEMESTER!
